

Social Smarts!

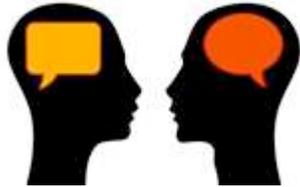

Social smarts is in our brains that we use when we are around other people.

We use social smarts in school, at home and everywhere.

Social smarts is using kind words and actions to others and having people be nice to you.

Social smarts help our brains know that other people have thoughts about us and we have thoughts about them.

Created by Kathryn Yourkin
M.S. CCC-SLP