

Rigor and Relevance in the Classroom: Gleaning Insights from ACT Quality Core Score Reports

June 5, 2015 (1:00 – 4:00 p.m. CDT)

Workshop #116-15

Green River Regional Educational Cooperative • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green

GRREC is pleased to offer this professional development for secondary core content teachers who have administered ACT QualityCore end-of-course assessments in their classes.

The presenter, Erin Strong, has been teaching for 14 years. The majority of those years have been spent in an urban high school setting. She has a BS in Secondary Education Biology with a Masters in Curriculum and Instruction. Erin has personally used QualityCore in her school for four years and worked across her district helping other teachers to integrate inquiry, rigor and relevance into their curriculum. She has worked with ACT for two and a half years training educators in other states on the powerful resources and data that QualityCore can offer.

Learning Targets

- ❖ Participants will be introduced to ACT QualityCore score reports.
- ❖ Participants will learn how to access online reports, analyze the different report types, and use those reports to help improve college and career readiness for students.

Note: Please bring a copy of your school's end-of-course data to analyze during this training.
