

Developing and Implementing an Individual Education Plan that is Compliant and Outcome-Driven

January 25-26, 2016

OR

February 17-18, 2016

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (CST)

GRREC Office & Training Facility • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green

Green River Regional Educational Cooperative is pleased to offer training on “Developing and Implementing an Individual Education Plan that is Compliant and Outcome-Driven” for new Special Education teachers in our Region.

Day 1: Developing the IEP: This session will provide direct instruction in using the Guidance Document as a guide for creating a meaningful data-driven individual education plan that is compliant and directly aligns with a student’s individual needs, strengths, learning style, and goals. Each participant will leave the session with a toolkit of resources for writing the IEP.

Day 2: Implementing the IEP: This session will focus on the implementation of the IEP and student outcomes for new teachers. The day will be structured with mini-sessions on annual goals, data collection/progress monitoring, specially designed instruction, supplementary aids and services, assessment accommodations, least restrictive environment, and transition. Educators will have the opportunity to learn instructional strategies and create resources that they can incorporate in the classroom the very next day.

Audience: Special Education Teachers in GRREC Districts

Presenters: GRREC Due Process Instructional Specialists
