

Learning to Lead More Effectively

September 16, 2015

Workshop #030-16

Green River Regional Educational Cooperative • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green, KY

Learning to Lead More Effectively is offered two powerful sessions. The morning session will focus on Leading School Change by utilizing nine strategies to bring everyone on board. The focus for the afternoon will be What Great Principals Do Differently.

Dr. Todd Whitaker is a professor at Indiana State University. He has written many books on education and participated in many research studies on effectiveness of school principals, teachers, students and also worked as a consultant in more than 50 schools in the United States.

Dr. Whitaker has been fortunate to be able to blend his passion with his career. Recognized as a leading presenter in the field of education, his message about the importance of teaching has resonated with hundreds of thousands of educators around the world. Todd is a professor of educational leadership at Indiana State University in Terre Haute, Indiana, and he has spent his life pursuing his love of education by researching and studying effective teachers and principals.

Prior to moving into higher education he was a math teacher and basketball coach in Missouri. Todd then served as a principal at the middle school, junior high, and high school levels. He was also a middle school coordinator in charge of staffing, curriculum, and technology for the opening of new middle schools.

One of the nation's leading authorities on staff motivation, teacher leadership, and principal effectiveness, Todd has written over 30 books including the national best seller, What Great Teachers Do Differently. Other titles include: Shifting The Monkey, Dealing with Difficult Teachers, 10 Minute In-service, The Ball, What Great Principals Do Differently, Motivating & Inspiring Teachers, and Dealing with Difficult Parents.

Todd is married to Beth, also a former teacher and principal, who is a professor of Elementary Education at Indiana State University. They are the parents of three children; Katherine, Madeline, and Harrison.
