

PGES: Peer Observer Workshop/Certification

During this training time will be scheduled to complete the PGES Peer Observer Training Module, and participants will become certified Peer Observers.

GRREC is pleased to offer training to familiarize participants with PGES: Peer Observation. Teachers will be able to understand the Peer Observation process and complete the Peer Observation Training Module. District and school leaders will be able to use this training to guide their teachers to understand the Peer Observation process and complete the Peer Observation Training Module.

Participants should bring laptops.

For Teachers, Administrators, and/or District Leaders
Friday, July 11, 2014	Tuesday, July 22, 2014
GRREC 230 Technology Way Bowling Green, KY 42101	Russell Co. Auditorium/Natatorium 2167 S. Hwy 127 Russell Springs, KY 42642

Instead of completing the Training Module in isolation, participants in this training will benefit from collaborating with fellow participants. As participants finish each segment of the Peer Observation Training Module, facilitators will guide them in activities that will reinforce the Module content. They will gain a deeper understanding of how their role of a peer observer or coach will strengthen their colleagues' and their own instructional practices.

Ron Hurley and Sheila Thompson, GRREC Leadership Consultants, will provide this training for teachers and/or administrators and district leaders.
