

Administrator Support for Observation

Consultants from Green River Regional Educational Cooperative will host a one-day PGES workshop focused on supporting administrators as they build capacity with Kentucky’s Framework for Teaching. This 6-hour learning experience is designed to provide additional practice in working with domains and components in order to provide feedback to teachers. Administrators will work with other administrators and GRREC consultants during hands-on, engaging and discussion activities.

Participants will:

- Learn about Kentucky’s Framework for Teaching domains and components
- Determine the difference between evidence, interpretation and bias statements
- Practice aligning evidence with appropriate domains throughout the framework
