

Title I Conference: “It's About Every Child”

October 26-27, 2015 (8:30 – 3:30 CDT)
Workshop #043-16

Green River Regional Educational Cooperative • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green

Kentucky Department of Education and Green River Regional Educational Cooperative are pleased to partner to offer this exciting opportunity for Title I Coordinators, DoSE, Principals, Teachers, and Instructional Supervisors to attend this Title I Conference: “It’s About Every Child”. Principal Baruti Kafele will be the featured keynote speaker and will be speaking on “Closing the Attitude Gap” on day one of the conference. The conference will feature 22 breakout sessions on as many as 15 topics with presenters from across the state, as well as individual district planning sessions with a personal novice reduction coach for a limited number of district teams. These teams will be determined based upon gap needs and the number of conference attendees from each district. Utilizing the theme “It’s About EVERY Child”, participants will gain a wealth of information on meeting academic expectations and preparing students for the future.

Recipient of the National Alliance of Black School Educators Hall of Fame Award, the New Jersey Education Association Award of Excellence and the prestigious Milken National Educator Award, Principal Baruti Kafele is ON FIRE! He’s one of the most sought-after presenters for transforming the attitudes of at-risk student populations in America.
