

Administration, Scoring, and Basic Interpretation of the WISC-V

February 27, 2015

Workshop #084-15

Green River Regional Educational Cooperative • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green

The Green River Regional Educational Cooperative Special Education Division, in partnership with the Psychology Department at Western Kentucky University, is pleased to present Administration, Scoring, and Basic Interpretation of the WISC-V on Friday, February 27, 2015.

This session will describe administration, scoring, and basic interpretation of the Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children–Fifth Edition (WISC-V). Dr. Maccow will describe two different formats for administration of the WISC-V subtests: the traditional paper format, and the digital format that uses Pearson’s Q-interactive platform. Toward the end of the session, participants will review sample data to describe patterns of cognitive strengths and weaknesses.

At the end of this full-day workshop, participants will be able to:

- Describe the conceptual structure of the WISC-V
- Describe subtests that are new to WISC-V
- Describe formats for administration of WISC-V subtests
- Use WISC-V data to describe intra-individual strengths and weaknesses
- Use assessment data to generate hypotheses about academic performance

Gloria Maccow, Ph.D., Assessment Training Consultant from Pearson Publishing will lead participants through the workshop.
